A motivated and focused technology enthusiast who is passionate about developing cutting edge solutions and working with driven group of individuals towards achieving a shared goal. On various occasions I have led colleagues in achieving goals and set targets and have volunteered my services in the development of my School Clinic Web application. I am also adept in problem solving and root cause analysis.

EXPERIENCE

APPLICATIONS DEVELOPER, NEW HORIZONS

BELLS UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY HUB (NHBELLSTECHHUB)

SEPTEMBER 2018 – JULY 2019

My greatest passion includes figuring out electronic devices function and interact with one another, the possible paths, or outcomes available when few optimizations are made, and most importantly how to cut down cost whilst still maintaining high standards. My role as Applications Developer involved the following:

- Development of various web pages on the application
- Building and linking of the database
- Documentation of the web application
- Deployment and testing of the web application
